PROBABLY 300 ARE LOST WITH ITALIAN SHIP ANCONA SUNK

Liner Destroyed by Large Submarine Flying the Austrian Colors

SAILED FROM NAPLES

Passengers Included Women and Children and Possibly Americans

Rome, via Paris, Nov. 9. — The Italian liner Ancona has been sunk by a large submarine flying the Austrian colors. She carried 422 passengers and 160 in the crew. Two hundred and seventy survivors, some of them wounded, have been landed at Bizerta.

William Hartfield, general manager of the Italian Line, tonight said the Ancona on her last few voyages to this countrp had carried 300 or 400 passengers, among them a number of Americans in the first cabin and in the steerage, but this trip he has no record at hand of the passengers.

Most of her passenger list, Mr. Hartfield said, had been made up of women and children. He believed she carried a large number of women and children on her present voyage.

The Ancona, he added, carried a crew of 160 men.

At no time, said Mr. Hartfield, did the Ancona carry guns or munitions of war, because it was against the rules of the company to carry war munitions on the same vessels with passengers.

The Ancona had been in the Italian line service for six years and without her cargo was valued at more than $1,000,000. The Ancona played a prominent part in the rescue from the burning Fabre liner Sant'Ana in mid-Atlantic last September 12. She came to the Sant'Ana's aid and took off more than 600 passengers. The Sant'Ana carried more than 2,000 passengers, but succeeded in checking the fire and proceeded to the Azores without further assistance from the Ancona.

SENSATION IN WASHINGTON.

Regarded as Foreshadowing Another Critical Controversy.

Washington, Nov. 9.—News of the sinking of the Ancona caused a sensation here tonight, as it was regarded as foreshadowing a new controversy between the United States and Austria similar to the critical dispute with Germany that followed the torpedoing of the Lusitania. Before making any comment, however, officials awaited information on two points—whether the vessel was torpedoed without warning and whether any Americans were among the victims.

Should it develop that the liner was warned and ignored it or attempted to escape the rules of naval warfare, according to the Washington government's view justified the use of force. If she was attacked without warning, and a case parallel to that of the Lusitania develops, the attitude of the United States probably will be along the lines already followed with Germany—the dispatch of a note demanding disavowal of the act, reparation and assurances that such incidents will not occur in the future.

Officially, Austria never has given the United States notice that she regarded the waters of the Mediterranean surrounding Italy as blockaded, or that her submarines would torpedo merchantmen without warning. This fact raises in the minds of some officials the point as to how far the negotiations and exchange of notes between the United States and Germany morally bound the Teutonic allies. It was recalled tonight that Dr. Dumba, then the Austro-Hungarian ambassador here, participated in some of the informal conversations with Secretary Bryan subsequent to the sinking of the Lusitania and became thoroughly familiar with the American position. Just how far such notification as Ambassador Dumba may have given his foreign office on the negotiations between the United States and Germany may affect the present situation is conjectural.

In its negotiations thus far with the belligerents, the American government has dealt principally with Great Britain for the Entente nations and with Germany, in regard to some matters at least for the Teutonic allies.

Should later dispatches indicate that the Ancona was torpedoed without warning and that Americans aboard her lost their lives, the first step would be a note of inquiry to Ambassador Penfield at Vienna to learn the facts from the Austrian government. Ambassador Page at Rome also would be similarly directed to send such information as he could obtain from Italy and for affidavits from the survivors of the circumstance under which the vessel was sunk. Probably no formal action would be taken pending receipt of this data.

Had Made Frequent Trips to America Since War Began

New York, Nov. 9.—The Ancona sailed fom New York for Naples on October 17. She had on board 1,245 Italian reservists and a general cargo. She arrived at Naples on October 29 and was due to sail from Naples for New York today (November 9).

The Ancona was built at Belfast in

BRITISH STATESMEN TALK ABOUT THE WAR IN ANNUAL BANQUET OF LORD MAYOR

Only Difference Between This and Former Years in Curtailment of Sumptuous Menu—French Ambassador, Balfour and Others Discuss Various Phases of the World Conflict—Inveigh Against Enemies.

London, Nov. 9. — The annual banquet of the lord mayor of London was celebrated in the Guild Hall tonight, Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield having been inaugurated during the course of the day. All the city officials, many members of the government and the diplomatic representatives attended. The only difference between the function tonight and those of others years was to be observed in the curtailment of the customary sumptuous menu and the presence of many of the guests in military uniform.

Premier Asquith, his wife and daughter were cheered when they entered the hall, and cheers were also given for the Serbian minister and for the representatives, notably the French and Italian ambassadors and the Russian Grand Duke Michael. The high commissioner of New Zealand, the Hon. William Thomas MacKenzie, brought his son who was blinded while serving in the Dardanelles and the young soldier was given an ovation. The Earl of Derby, director of recruiting, was warmly received, as was also the Belgian minister.

When the toast, "The King," was given, the assembly rose and sang the national anthem. Sir John A. Simon, secretary for home affairs, responding to "Our Allies," said that the alliance would become stronger with the duration of the war.

French Ambassador Talks.

Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador, said:

"Although the number of our enemies may have increased since last year, the number of our friends has been augmented. I am happy to see our Italian colleagues."

Describing the war he said:

"On the one side are tranquil courage, faith in an ideal of justice and liberty and the will to employ only legitimate means of defense. On the other, thoughts of lucre, forgetfulness of all the principles of humanity, the destruction of an open town, the taking of innocent lives, a sort of perverse joy in the accomplishment of evil, and a plan, pursued with childish disregard of scruple, to dominate the world by terror."

He made reference to the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, saying:

"Quite recently we saw a German military tribunal sentence a noble woman to death for the crime of generosity and a German officer indulge in the pleasure, though not compelled to do so, of executing the setence himself by murdering this defenseless victim."

The ambassador concluded:

"When the hour strikes for the enemy to realize that all his schemes for world domination have broken down, we shall see him a prey to a moral depression which will make him fall suddenly from the height of his dreams."

Mr. Balfour Speaks.

Mr. Balfour, replying for the army and navy, said that the French ambassador, in a speech of burning, scathing eloquence, had told them what were the moral objects for which the Allies were fighting. He had to deal with the means and weapons by which the gerat ends were to be attained.

The whole strategy of the Allies, said the first lord, was based upon the allied fleets. Never was there a war in which dramatic incidents connected with allied fleets were fewer, never was there a war in which the operations of the allied fleets were more essential to the land forces.

Their fortunes would have been very diqerent from what they were, and what they were going to be, had it not been for the fact that the Allies from the first moment took command of the seas.

Dealing with the land forces, he said, to praise the armies which Lord Kitchener's genius had raised from the country was superfluous. What they had done was but a small earnest of what they would do. He declined to appear in the character of a prophet, but wished to point out one or two facts on which prophecies may be based.

No historian in the future might say that there was a moment when the calculations of the central powers were near realization. Their campaign the first spring, which might have been fatal, was foiled; it was many months since any success could be claimed by the Germans on the western front, and it was two months since there had been any advance in Russia.

The Pause in the War.

The pause in the war meant that the tide of the enemy successes had reached its limit, and what they had to look forward to was the ebb—slow or fast—but ebb all the same.

One great success the central powers might claim, said Mr. Balfour, but it was not a military success. It was a diplomatic success. Undoubtedly the betrayal by Bulgaria of all her traditions, under the leadership of the king, was a triumph for German diplomacy, and had important military consequences—consequences, which he would be the last to minimize. The rulers of Bulgaria, he declared, were animated by two simple motives—greed and fear, and when they were dealing with rulers of a certain type, greed and fear were great and powerful motives.

He believed that no diplomacy on the part of the Allies would have been sufficient to outweigh the simple fact that the rulers of Bulgaria thought that Austria and Germany were the winning powers. The influences which guided the Bulgarians, he asserted, would prove to be profound miscalculations, but the Allies must remember that it was "deliberate miscalculations."

Many things had weighed with them, but they misunderstood the power, resolution and will of the Allies with whom they had to deal. England, in some part, was to blame for this.

FIRE ABOARD PASSENGER STEAMSHIP EXTINGUISHED.

The Vessel, With 651 Persons Aboard, Proceeds to Bordeaux.

New York, Nov. 9.—The fire in the hold of the passenger steamship Roehambeau, which broke out after the liner left here Saturday, has been extinguished and the steamship is now proceeding to Bordeaux. News that the fire had been extinguished was received in a brief wireless message today from Captain Juham. It read:

"Have succeeded in extinguishing the fire and am proceeding to Bordeaux. All well on board."

WAS NOT INSTRUCTED AGAINST NAVAL PLAN

Claude Kitchin Denies Story Published in Washington

Says He Believes Majority of People in His District Now Are for Big Navy Because of Misleading Literature.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Majority Leader Claude Kitchin today denied that his district convention had instructed him against a greater navy. A local paper here today published a story saying that Kitchin's opposition to the administration's naval program was because his district convention had instructed him to vote against such a proposition. Mr. Kitchin said:

"The statement that my convention instructed against a greater navy is absolutely false. I never authorized such a statement nor did my district convention mention the subject. As a matter of fact, I am inclined to believe that at present a majority of my district is in favor of the administration's naval program.

"But, when the district is informed of the truth, as I am, at least 90 per cent of them will oppose the naval program as is proposed at present.

"Tons of misleading literature have been dumped into my district with reference to this country's unpreparedness. Because of these misrepresentations, I think, a majority of my people are for the administration's program."

NEW GREEK CABINET TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY

"Sincerest Benevolence Toward the Entente Powers."

New Premier Sends Assurances to the French Government—Hopes Allies Will Not Heed Reports of "Unfriendliness."

Paris, Nov. 9.—The French government received today from Premier Skouloudis, head of the new Greek cabinet, formal assurances of "our neutrality with the character of sincerest benevolence toward the Entente powers."

Premier Skouloudis expressed the hope that the feelings of the Entente powers towards Greece would not be influenced by attempts to impair their friendly relations.

The communication was in the form of a telegram from the Greek premier to Athos Romanos, Greek minister at Paris, which the minister delivered to Jules Cambon, general secretary of the foreign ministry. The telegram follows:

"Please give to the president of the council the most formal assurance on my part of our firm resolution to continue our neutrality, with the character of the sincerest benevolence toward the Entente powers.

"Please add that the new cabinet accepts as its own the declarations of former Premier Zaimis regarding the friendly attitude of the Royal Government as to Allied troops at Saloniki. It is too conscious of the real interests of the country and of what it owes to the powers which are protecting Greece to swerve from this line of conduct. It hopes that the friendly feelings of these powers for Greece will not for a

CONDITIONS ARE FAST IMPROVING NOW IN MEXICO

Signs Give Hope for Gradual Return to Order and Prosperity There.

FAMINE REPORTED OVER

Railway Service Re-Established; Food Distributed; Business is Much Better.

Washington, Nov. 9. — Conditions in Mexico are improving and there are signs that give hope for a gradual return to order and prosperity there, according to a summary of advices from various parts of the republic made public tonight by the State Department. The famine in Mexico City is said to be over, railway service has been re-established in many directions, the Carranza government is distributing food to the destitute, business is better than at any time since the revolt against Diaz began.

The department's statement follows:

"Conditions in Mexico are such as might be expected in any country that has passed through about six years of civil war. Those hopeful for the restoration of order and of Mexico's former prosperity, believe that there now is a chance for them to improve.

"In Mexico City the famine is a thing of the past. Now, through government officials, there is food for everybody, and the improvement of the railway service makes it certain that food conditions will be better every day. The government has been maintaining 46 stations where food is free. In addition, there are 56 commissaries where food is sold to those in better circumstances at cost. Further, there are 10 dining rooms where meals are served free. Conditions are so much better that the government is considering the reduction of the number of these free stations.

Business Much Better.

"While business is not flourishing, compared with former years in Mexico City, it is probably better than it has been at any other time since the trouble started. The stores are open and most of them are well stocked, in contrast with the conditions of a year and a half ago, at the end of the Huerta regime.

"Restoration of railroad service throughout the country will not only be the big step towards resuming normal conditions, but it will also be the barometer of peace and order in the country. Railroads have been in the last few weeks transferred from the military to the civil authorities. The latter are now attempting to get the railroads on a running schedule, working under the most discouraging handicaps. Of the former equipment of the great national system of railroads, more than two-thirds of the engines, cars, rolling stock and stations have been destroyed. One-half, at least of what is left is still being used by the military. For instance, on the road from Vera Cruz to Mexico City one sleeper is available and, accordingly, has an alternate schedule. This is a better schedule than on any other stretch of the system. Shortage of freight cars and locomotives is holding back the resumption of the normal commerce of the country.

"In the capital and all of the large cities and towns under the control of the Carranzistas, law and order have been restored as rapidly as possible.

"Some parts of the rural districts still have roving bands of bandits, whom the soldiers have been unable to apprehend, and exterminate. V[illegible] bandits hanging from telegraph poles on the railroad right of way, however, show that progress is being made in their extermination."

HOMICIDE AT MARION, N. C.

Marion, N. C., Nov. 9. — J. R. Ray, employee of a local cotton mill, was shot and killed today and John T. Marsh, formerly postmaster and railway agent at Paint Rock, N. C., is in jail, charged with the shooting. Marsh, according to the authorities, confessed, declaring that the killing was the culmination of trouble which began in August, 1910, when Ray was alleged to have drugged Mrs. Marsh.

Marsh came here last August, and he alleges that Ray followed him. Ray and Marsh met in the cotton mill early today, and the latter told the police that Ray raised a club to strike him and that then he fired. Marsh surrendered to the police.

NO MONARCHY IN CHINA THIS YEAR AT LEAST

Peking, Nov. 9. — The Associated Press was authorized today to state that the Chinese government had decided no change would be made this year in the form of government of the country.

Election returns given out today make it certain that the proposal to re-establish a monarchial form of government has been abolished. These returns show that 18 of the 22 provinces already have given solid support to the project. The election will be completed, but restoration of the monarchy will be delayed.

FOREIGNERS SEE MIKADO CROWNED

FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

United States Represented at Kioto by Ambassador Guthrie and Mrs. Guthrie—Epochal Event in Japanese History.

Kioto, Nov. 9.—For the first time in history, the people of Japan and the representatives of the people of foreign lands were present today at the coronation of a Mikado, when Yoshihito, son of Natsuhito, acceded to the throne of Nippon.

The story of this epochal event is the history of old Japan epitomized. It is the story of the Japanese deities of Heaven and Earth, of the veneration of the imperial ancestral gods and of the formal accession on the sanctity of the monarch of today—Yoshihito—direct descendant of the immortal Jimmu, the first emperor and founder of the empire and descendant also, according to tradition, of the Sun Goddess and imperial grand ancestress, Amaterasu Omikami, who dwelt in the heavenly regions in prehistoric ages.

The essence of the accession ceremony centered about the Kashikodokoro or Sacred Mirror, which represents the spirit of the sun goddess Amaterasu. This divine mirror, supposed to be of bronze, though no mortal eyes have gazed upon it, together with the sacred comma-shaped jewel necklace and the sacred sword are known as the imperial treasures and symbolize the imperial power. The ceremony of this morning was a ritual service of ancestor worship and was held in a specially erected hall in the palace grounds known as the Shunkoden hall, where was enshrined the sacred mirror brought from Tokio.

The drawing of the veil of seclusion and the admission of foreigners and of the people of Japan to the holy service of accession was the visual evidence of Japan's transition from the early years when the emperor stood apart in severe separation from the world to a time when without abandoning his heavenly-given sanctity he consented to emerge from his historic isolation. In the olden days the people were not present. Vaguely they heard that the monarch had acceded to his throne but they had no prerogative in the matter.

Today they were actually invited to the ceremonies. Their representatives in parliament were there grouped about the imperial throne symbolizing the new Japan.

The Shunkoden was of plain, unvarnished wood and consisted of an outer hall, inner hall and shrine. It was simply decorated. Indeed, simplicity dominates the coronation ceremonies. The decorations were those of Shintoism, the religion adopted by the court, which is more pronouncedly a series of rites than a religion pure and simple. Beside the main hall were built other halls and annexes for the accommodation of the people participating in and witnessing the ceremonies.

At the appointed time the two gates "kenrei-mon" and "kenshunmon"—respectively facing south and east—were opened for the reception of those allowed to attend the grand ceremony. The guards about the gates were exclusively those in the service of the imperial household. Then arrived the guests—distinguished officials, civil and military, nobles, the members of the house of representatives and the house of peers, the diplomatic corps

STEAMER DACIA SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

Bought by French After Prize Court Proceedings.

Was Seized Early in the Year by French Cruiser With Cargo of Cotton from the United States for Germany.

Algiers, Algeria, via Paris, Nov. 9.—The French steamship Yser, formerly known as the Dacia, which was seized by a French cruiser last February, while carrying a cargo of cotton from the United States to Germany, has been sunk by a German submarine. The news of the sinking of the Yser was contained in an official announcement made public here today, which read:

"The French ship Yser, formerly the Dacia, re-named after her sale by the prize court, was torpedoed while conveying to Bizerta the passengers saved from the Italian steamer Elisa-Francesco.

"The entire crew and passengers were landed."

The Dacia formerly belonged to the Hamburg-American Line. After the outbreak of hostilities she was purchased by Edward N. Breitung and changed her registry and became an American ship. Laden with cotton destined for Germany, she was on her way from the United States to Rotterdam when picked up by a French cruiser last February and taken into Brest.

The seizure of the vessel later was confirmed by a prize court and the cargo of cotton was purchased through a special appropriation. In August the Dacia was sold through the prize court and her new French owner re-named her the Yser.

EVERY HOUR ADDS TO SERBIA'S PERIL

Fighting Desperately Against Odds, Pending Allies' Aid.

GRIP IS TIGHTENING

Attitude of Greece Unchanged—No Important Changes on Other Fronts. Anglo-French Are Menacing the Bulgars.

London, Nov. 9.—Every day, every hour adds to the peril of the Serbian armies which are fighting desperately to hold back the Austro-Germans, pressing them from the north, and the Bulgarians, invading their country from the east, until the assistance their allies are sending can reach them.

The Bulgarians have extended their grip on the Belgrade-Saloniki railway north and south of Nish, and have occupied Leskovac, south of the captured capital, and Aleksinac, to the north. At the latter point they are in close touch with the German army, which, after occupying Kruzvac, extended its left wing as far as Djunis, in the left bank of the Bulgar Morava.

The Austro-Germans, advancing southward, are making progress except in the west, where they are being held by the Montenegrins. The invading forces are now reaching the most difficult part of Serbia, the mountainous region where the natives, knowing every hill and gully can offer the strongest resistance. The Austrians and Germans, however, are plentifully supplied with mountain guns with which they expect to drive the defenders from their fastnesses.

In the south the ever-growing strength of the French and British forces is beginning to tell. They are carrying on an energetic offensive against the Bulgars; have managed to keep the railroad clear as far as Veles and are barring the Bulgars' route to Monastir.

While it will be some time before the Germans can sufficiently repair the northern end of the railroad for the transport of troops and munitions, their successes have enabled them to send supplies to the Bulgarians and Turks by the Danube as far as Nikopolis, from which point they can be sent by rail to Sofia and Constantinople.

Greece's Attitude Unchanged.

There is no change in the attitude of Greece, although it is considered significant that at the moment that Bulgaria has again protested against the hospitality accorded the allied troops at Saloniki the Greek government has applied to the Allies for financial assistance—an application which is receiving favorable consideration.

The Greek government also has renewed to the Allies an expression of its firm determination to maintain neutrality and of its sincere good will toward the Entente powers.

On Other Fronts.

The campaigns on the other fronts continue without any important changes. The Russians are still attacking in the north and south and are commencing to harrass the German forces in the center, which, it is believed, has been weakened for the purpose of strangthening the two wings.

No big movement is expected, however, until the condition of the ground improves.

In both the West and on the Italian front there has been considerable fighting.

REV. GEORGE SWEATT KILLED ON HIGHWAY

In Richmond County Minister Shot to Death at Night.

No Clue Found as to Perpetrators of Crime Committed Near Hamlet—Had Been Active in Suppression of Vice (Special Star Correspondence).

Hamlet, N. C., Nov. 9.—Rev. George Sweatt, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church situated several miles east of Hamlet, was shot and instantly killed about 7 o'clock last night while on his way from Hamlet to his home. The murder occurred just outside of the city limits.

Mr. Batchelor and a negro driver was in a wagon just ahead of the wagon driven by the deceased and at the point where the murder was committed they were stopped by a man, but as the night was dark they could not recognize him. After the exchange of a few words they passed on and in a few seconds heard two pistol shots. They immediately ran back to investigate and found Mr. Sweatt's body on the ground, his horse having run at the firing of the shots. Examination disclosed that the deceased was shot twice, once through the heart and once in the side.

Officers were on the scene in a few minutes but have not been able to secure any clue to the perpetrators of the crime.

The deceased had been active in the suppression of crime in the neighborhood in which he lived, which was near the State line, and this is thought to be the motive for his murder.

The coroner immediately began an investigation but has not yet completed his report.

KITCHENER GONE TO INDIA AND TO EGYPT IS REPORT

To Undertake to Hold Great Britain's Oriental Empire Intact, it is Said.

UNREST VERY SERIOUS

Unofficial But "Credible" Report on Mysterious Mission to the "Near East."

Washington, Nov. 9.—Earl Kitchener's ultimate mission during his mysterious absence from the British war office is said by confidential information received here today to be India, where, according to the same information, British rule is confronted with a more serious state of unrest than has generally been known outside of British official circles.

Through the thick veil the British censorship has thrown about the events in India and Egypt comes a statement that Nawab, Sultan Ul Mulk, the Nizam of Hyderabad, one of the most influential of the native princes and a staunch supporter of the British, has been deposed by his people.

This development coming as one of the climaxes to successive reports of mutinies and unrest, many of which have been admitted by the British government, is said to be the leading reason for Earl Kitchener's departure from England.

Ostensibly to Balkans.

It has been officially announced that the head of the British war office was on his way to the theatre of operations in the Near East, which has been generally interpreted as meaning the Balkans. Information reaching the United States, however, through channels not subject to censorship is to the effect that it is well known in London among those close to the government that while Earl Kitchener may stop in the Balkans to co-ordinate the egorts of the allied forces, his ultimate destination is not only India, but Egypt as well, where the British gateway to Asia now is menaced by the Teutonic-Bulgarian-Turk successes in the Balkans. Soupled with repeated rumors of activities of German agents fomenting discontent among the native population of India have come reports of dissastisfaction in Egypt also ascribed to the same sources.

Since the Turks failed to cut the Suez canal, mainly through the prompt arrival of colonial troops from New Zealand and Australia, it has been reported that agents from Constantinople and Berlin have been conducting a persistent propaganda among the natives. Some time ago Great Britain imposed the most stringent restrictions against the entry of foreigners to India and Egypt with the announced purpose of keeping out the agents of Great Britain's enemies.

The importance to the British of the reported downfall of the Nizam of Hyderabad may be illustrated by the fact that at the critical moment when Turkey entered hostilities and the sultan called on all Mohammedans for holy war, the Nizam of Hyderabad, head of the largest Mohammedan state in India, issued a manifesto to his people declaring it to be the duty of all Mohammedans in India to adhere to their British allegiance. The Nizam also contributed $2,000,000 to defray the expenses of the first Hyderabad Imperial lancers and the 20th Deccan horsemen who were transported to service in Europe.

Report Given Credence.

Such information as has come to Washington on these developments is of an unofficial character and inasmuch as it does not emanate from sources which would be interested in spreading reports of disaffection in British territory, it has been given credence.

Earl Kitchener's selection for the task of holding Britain's Oriental Empire intact is viewed generally as having been caused by his long service in India and Egypt, his intimate knowledge of the native temperament and his large personal following among the leaders of the natives. Earlier in the war the disaffection in India and Egypt was evidently of such threatening proportions that the use of Japanese troops was being suggested to take the place of native forces which had been withdrawn for the European battlefields.

At the Japanese embassy here the opinion was expressed today that under the treaty between Great Britain and Japan the latter would be bound to furnish troops, if called upon for duty in India or Egypt. The embassy, however, had no advices on the situation in India.

BRYAN BOOK BARRED.

"British Rule in India," Not Allowed Circulation in India.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Ram Chandra, a local Hindu editor, announced today that a pamphlet which he says is made up wholly of translated excerpts from W. J. Bryan's "British Rule in India," has been barred from the mails to India at the request of the British government. The pamphlet is entitled "Angan di Gawahi," which is said to be a translation of the Bryan title.

Ram Chandra made public a letter signed with the name of Charles W. Fay, postmaster, which said:

"I have to inform you that the government of India has prohibited the importation into British India of any copy of a pamphlet entitled 'Angan di Gawahi,' published by Yuganter Ashram, San Francisco, United States of America, whatever may be the lan-

SOUTHERN DOCTORS IN BUSY SESSIONS

"Sanitary Preparedness" Keynote of Addresses at Dallas.

DR. RUPERT BLUE HEARD

Emphasizes Importance of Maintenance of Body of Man on a "War Footing"—Four Sectional Meetings Held Yesterday.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 9.—Sanitary preparedness, termed a greater national need than military preparedness, was the keynote of addresses before the Southern Medical Association, which opened its annual convention here today. Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, who spoke tonight, emphasized the importance of the maintenance of the body of man on a war footing against disease, and physicians from all parts of the South forecasted enthusiastically the benefits such preparedness would bring to all communities.

Dr. W. L. Rodman, president of the American Medical Association, gave the term a military turn when he asked the association to help develop a medical corps large enough for any expansion of the army and navy.

Dr. Rupert Blue Speaks.

"Sanitary Preparedness," the subject of an address tonight by Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, before the Southern Medical Association, was defined as "the maintenance of the body of men on a war footing against disease." It was further described as a condition in which "an able bodied, vigorous society, clothed in the armor of hygienic knowledge and fortified by adequate sanitary defenses, is equally able to withstand the shock of arms and the continued strains of the occupations of tranquility."

"The sanitary preparedness of a nation," said Dr. Blue, "means not only the health of the fighting units, but of the mothers who are to bear them, and of the civilians upon whom both in time of peace and of war the military forces must depend for food and clothing and the weapons with which to fight. Community health is, therefore, the all important prerequisite, and in order that we may have military preparedness we must first of all have sanitary preparedness.

"The first step in the creation of sanitary preparedness is to teach the citizen the value of a sound body. If, upon the plastic mind of the school child the simple truths of sanitation are impressed, we will gradually create a people in which sanitary living is a habit. If by child hygiene we produce better and stronger men and women, these in turn will have learned that mating with the weak and defective produces weak and defective children. Thus we will have a practical eugenic betterment.

"It may truly be said that the fate of kings and nations has frequently depended upon so minute a thing as the typhoid bacillus, or the plasmodium of malaria. We are able by the use of typhoid vaccination to control the one, and by anti-mosquito measures to prevent the other, but until the people of our country have learned the lessons of sanitation it will not be possible to eliminate either disease, or to maintain a citizenship the great bulk of which is physically fit.

"Unfortunately it seems as though the human race can make sanitary advance only through the bitterness of previous experience, and it is very difficult in the absence of the threat of epidemic to arouse much interest in sanitary betterment."

Dr. Oscar Dowling, of Shreveport, La., president of the association, opened the sessions this morning with an address on "The Physician—His Obligations."

Four Sectional Meetings

Four sectional meetings were held today. In the department of public health, Dr. Isadore Dyer, of New Orleans, led a discussion of sex hygiene.

Dr. R. N. Whitfield, of Florence, Mississippi, advocated the issuance of public health bulletins on the subject of sex hygiene, while Dr. Robert Wilson, of Charleston, S. C., opposed the teaching of this subject in the public schools. The home, Dr. Wilson said, was the best place for instruction, and the parents the best instructors.

Dr. A. W. Freeman, of Washington, presiding officer of the meeting, said that physicians should confine their activities to the sanitary side of this problem and not the moral side.

"As soon as you confine your efforts to the sanitary side," he said, "you are going to see results."

He illustrated by the work done through sanitation in the army and the navy.

Symposium on Life Insurance

The public health section also held a symposium on life insurance. Dr. John L. Davis, of Waco, Texas, said that life insurance companies help to conserve public health. There are 20,000,000 policy holders in the United States, he said, in whose good health the companies are interested and 25,000 active agents of the companies, whose one search is for healthy persons to insure, and 50,000 company medical examiners. Touching on drinking, he said statistics lately issued by 37 leading insurance companies showed there is no such thing as "safe or moderate drinking" today.

The meeting of the section on medicine was devoted to a discussion of care of infants. The speakers included Dr. J. Ross Snyder, of Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. L. W. Bliss, of Asheville, N. C.; and Dr. L. R. Dubuys, of New Orleans.

Dr. Isador Cohn, of New Orleans, presided at the session of the surgery section and Dr. Joseph B. Greene, of Asheville, N. C., acted as the presiding officer in the section on ophthalmology. Dr. Greene congratulated the eye, ear, nose and throat specialists on their "freedom from the insidious curse of fee-splitting." Discussing adenoids Dr. Green said.

"I am of the opinion that the operation for adenoid removal is so relatively free from danger and its effects so beneficial, particularly in preserving the organ of hearing, that it should be advised without the usual pronounced indications."

CURES PIMPLES EASILY

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer, that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the worst sores, uncers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There is yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not help, and its action is so quick that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, J. Hicks Bunting will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you can get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it, on this plan.

EVIDENCE WITHIN THREE YEARS NOW

NECESSARY TO CONVICT

Testimony Previously Introduced Designed to Prove Existence of Conspiracy to Monopolize Prior to Three-Year Period.

New York, Nov. 9.—For the first time since the trial of the eleven former directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad began nearly four weeks ago, attorneys for the government today presented evidence of acts committed by the defendants within the three-year period of the statute of limitations which began in 1912. This had to do with alleged efforts of the New Haven to make obsolute its ownership of the Central New England Railway, control of which it purchased in 1904.

All the testimony that has been previously introduced has been designed to prove that a conspiracy to monopolize the transportation traffic of New England existed prior to the three-year period.

According to a ruling by the court, the defendants can be convicted only for acts committed within the three-year period in continuance of the alleged conspiracy.

The testimony emerged in this period today, after the government had put into the record letters and directors' minutes, intended to prove that the Central New England was acquired in the face of legal advice that the acquisition might be a violation of the Sherman law.

Meeting in March, 1912.

Through minutes of a directors' meeting, held March 21, 1912, the government tried to show that the New Haven sought to validate the doubtful legality of its ownership of certain lines in New York State by placing them under the control of the Central through a lease. Counsel for the defense protested against the admission of the minutes, declaring that it was merely an inter-company arrangement and had no significance other than that it was designed solely to facilitate economical operation of the New Haven lines.

The minutes having been ruled as proper evidence, the government then questioned Charles S. Mellen as to the reason of the authorization of the lease. It then developed that the lease had been abandoned and a traffic agreement has been substituted whereby the Central New England used the lines in question. Mr. Mellen explained that he did not think that either the lease would have been suggested or the agreement made if the New Haven had not thought it advisable "to go through the formalities to prevent the Central's minority stockholders from making trouble."

To show that the New Haven then took steps to acquire this minority interest in order to obviate all possible trouble, the government prosecutor put into the record more minutes of New Haven directors' meetings, over the heated protest of the defense.

The intention of the government to ask for an amendment of its bill of particulars so as to include Stevenson Taylor as a co-conspirator, was announced by Attorney Batts in connection with testimony introduced to show how the New Haven acquired control of the New London Steamboat Company.

All Babies Destined to Great Achievement

To be born is to be great. For there are possibilities in every tiny human infant. And for this reason every one should remember that whatever is done to aid the mother, to relieve her of distresses during her trying months, will surely be of marked benefit to the child.

Among the sterling aids is a splendid external remedy known as "Mother's Friend." It is what is called an embrocation. It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in by your own hand guided by your own mind. It makes the muscles pliant, they expand quite naturally and the effect upon the nerves is such that they adjust themselves to the process of expansion so that pain from this source is almost eliminated. Women who use "Mother's Friend" refer to the absence of morning sickness, they are relieved of a great many minor distresses, all apprehension disappears and those peculiar nervous "fidgets" no longer disturb the nights. It is well named "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any druggist. Then at once write for a most entertaining and instructive book for all prospective mothers. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., 705 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

This book explains the physical action of "Mother's Friend," tells why it enforces strength to the muscles and relieves undue strain. It also contains letters of experience from many happy mothers. It is just such a handy little book as every woman will at once recognize as just what she had always wished to read—plain facts about herself. The book is mailed free to any address. Write for it today.

COL. BRYAN SPEAKS AT BIG FAIR AT KINSTON

Throngs Attend "10-County" Fair on First Day

(Special Star Correspondence).

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 9.—The first Bright Leaf Tobacco Belt fair was formally opened here today at noon by F. Clyde Dunn, a Kinston business man, the president of the fair association. Ten thousand people from out-of-town arrived here during the morning over the regular trains and a number of specials. Special trains brought thousands of people from Greene, Duplin, Pender, Pitt, Lenoir, Jones, Onslow, and Craven counties, while Wayne and Carteret counties and others contributed liberally to the crowds.

The parade at 10 o'clock was so long that it had to double on Queen street. The city's principal thoroughfare was roped off and no traffic was allowed on it for more than an hour, other than the long procession. There were several hundred mounted marshals, from all the counties in the fair district; military, the officials and guests of honor, scores of decorated automobiles, the fire department, more than half a hundred industrial floats and a number of fraternal and civic organizations in line.

Following the parade and the opening address by the president, Lieutenant-Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, a popular orator in this section of the State, introduced W. J. Bryan, who arrived in the city late Monday night and was the guest this morning of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Isler. Mr. Daughtridge paid high tribute to the Commoner's ability as a stateman and orator. The Nebraskan was greeted by cheers, as he had been cheered at his every turn in Kinston today.

Mr. Bryan Speaks.

Mr. Bryan spoke for an hour and twenty minutes on "The European War and Its Lessons for Us." He discussed the "false philosophy" out of which the war has grown and the way to permanent peace. The money to be spent on national preparedness, he said, would far better be expended on highways upon which to easily mobilize armies than upon mere ornaments. The public would be much more benefitted.

He pleaded for national prohibition, that alcohol might be banished, and that the preparedness of this Nation be in its men.

"Do not let the munitions manufacturers fasten their propaganda upon the American tax-payer and the jingoist transplant the tree of hatred from the old world to America unless America is ready to eat of the fruit of that tree," he urged. In closing Mr. Bryan said:

"We must not disappoint the hopes which our ideals and achievements have excited. If I know the heart of the American people, they are not willing that this supreme opportunity would pass by unimproved. No, the metropolitan press is not the voice of the Nation. You can no more measure the sentiment of the peace loving masses by the froth of the jingo press than you can measure the ocean's silent depths by the foam upon its waves."

MR. TAFT CHAIRMAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS

Former President is Appointed by President Wilson

Washington, Nov. 9. — President Wilson today appointed former President William H. Taft, chairman of the central committee of the American Red Cross, to succeed Major General Geo. W. Davis, retired. General Davis resigned on account of ill health.

When Mr. Taft was secretary of war, he was elected president of the American Red Cross by the central committee on February 8, 1905. We was re-elected sucessively and served until April 20, 1913, when after the inaurugation of Mr. Wilson as President of the United States he resigned, and suggested that the honor should go with the office of president of the United States. The suggestion promptly was accepted by the committee, and Mr. Wilson became head of the organization.

Mr. Taft's appointment, it is said, means that he will take active charge of the central governing body of the Red Cross, which passes on all administrative affairs of the organization.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—The National Association of Professional Ball Leagues opened its annual meeting here today with a brief session which was adjourned in memory of Judge W. M. Kavanaugh, former president of the Southern Association. Welcoming speeches by civic and Panama-Pacific Exposition officials were heard.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"—

Here's Sense!

Farmers just use the same good judgment in choosing your tobacco that you do in raising and selling your crops. Chew a mild tobacco.

What's the use of letting a strong, rank tobacco jangle your nerves? PICNIC TWIST tastes better and is milder—lots milder.

You can chew it all day without over-chewing.

The specially selected tobacco leaves that go into PICNIC TWIST are the finest, mellowest obtainable and of the best chewing kind.

WILSON WITH WILSON BUT WELCOMES BRYAN

Large Audience Enjoys Address by the Nebraskan

Given Gracious Welcome and Frequent Applause in Town Where Everybody is Against His Attitude on Preparedness.

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 9.—Followed from the first sentence to the conclusion of his address with intense interest, William Jennings Bryan delivered an address in the graded school auditorium tonight before a large audience on the subject, "The War in Europe and Its Lessons to Us."

Mr. Bryan was introduced by Mr. Frederick Swindell, a member of the local bar. On the platform were a number of prominent Wilsonians, members of the committee on arrangements. The trip from Kinston, where Mr. Bryan delivered an address this afternoon, was made more pleasant by reason of a committee of citizens who went from here and accompanied Mr. Bryan to Wilson.

Tributes were paid to President Wilson and Secretary Daniels when the Nebraskan began his address. Taking up his subject the speaker held the attention of his audience with his oratorical effort and the clearness of expression. Notwithstanding the fact that but one single man of prominence in the community has expressed himself as being in sympathy with Mr. Bryan in his opposition to preparedness—the audience enjoyed the address of the man who dared to hold a minority opinion and express it.

"No matter by what standard you measure the European war," said Mr. Bryan, "you must acknowledge that it is without precedent or parallel and while I will not call it the greatest war in history, for the word 'greatness' implies more than 'bigness,' I will say that there have been greater wars but none that approached it in bigness. If my analysis of the cause of this war is correct, it is based upon a false philosophy. It is based on the doctrine that 'might makes right' and this is the doctrine which was formerly proclaimed by nations, publicly and while now it is no longer thus openly proclaimed, it is sometimes practiced when the temptation is sufficient. When we enter upon a period of preparedness we submit ourselves to the leadership of those who believe in the doctrine that peace rests upon fear, that we can only preserve the peace of the people by making people afraid of us. This is the folly of the years and the very theory that has led Europe into the present conflict."

In his address the speaker suggested that the efforts of President Wilson in the present crisis had received setbacks because of the fact that the newspapers and the people generally have not remained absolutely neutral.

The address was well received and the Nebraskan was given gracious welcome and frequent applause.

This morning a telegram came to Editor Gold, of the Wilson Times, from the New York Herald, asking for an expression of the sentiment of the people of Wilson in reference to the position of President Wilson in the matter of national defense. In his reply Editor Gold stated that the citizenship of Wilson stood unanimously with the President.

WAKE FOREST TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION AFTER V. M. I. GAME

Did Better Playing Than Meagre Report and Score Indicated.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest, N. C., Nov. 9.—With the exception of minor injuries the Wake Forest football team came out of the game Saturday with Virginia Military Institute in good condition. The Baptists were greatly disappointed at the outcome of the game. The reports from the game were very meagre, and Wake Forest played a far better game than the score indicates. Reports from the official scorer of the game show that Wake Forest made 19 first downs during the entire game to their opponents' five.

Fumbles at critical stages cost the Baptists several touchdowns. They would advance the ball down the field and carry it inside the 20-yard line only to fumble and then V. M. I., recovering the ball, would put back out of danger. The showing made by Parker, the big fullback, was especially pleasing. He never failed to plow through the line when called upon, and it is conceded by all who saw him that he played one of the best games of his career. Coach Smith seems to have solved his backfield problem by shifting Parker from the line to fullback. Both weight and speed has been added to the backfield. Parker weighs 215 pounds in uniform and is six feet, one inch high. He is unusually fast for a big man, and his work in the backfield is expected to play an important factor in the showing made by the team the rest of the season.

Biloxi, Miss., Nov. 9. — Bonds for $200,000 are soon to be issued for a coast road from Biloxi to Pass Christian, a 22-mile link in the Jackson Memorial Highway.

Had Pellagra Seven Years Thanks God He's Cured

Cowards, S. C.—David G. Pate, of this place, writes: "I am glad to say to you, after waiting forty days, that I still feel like I am cured of pellagra. I had this disease for the last seven years. The fourth day after beginning your medicine I went back to work and have been able to do my work ever since. I thank God for your remedy."

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't delay until it is too late. It is your duty to consult the resourceful Baughn.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea, either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope; get Baughn's big Free book on Pellagra and learn about the remedy for Pellagra that has at last been found. Address American Compounding Co., box 2097, Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—Adv.

THEATRICAL

The magnitude of the scenes representing New Year's Eve on Broadway, New York, in Henry W. Savage's production of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," will be understood from the statement that to approach realism a chime of bells is used weighing over three thousand pounds. Over one hundred and fifty people appear in this one scene which is one of the largest ever staged. Nothing could be more difficult to reproduce upon the stage than the carnival spirit that prevails in the metropolis as the old year is passing out and the new year coming in.

The Smart Set

Headed by the peer of all negro entertainers, Salem Tutt Whitney, will be the attraction at the Academy of Music tonight in the big musical comedy "George Washington Bullion Abroad." It is an offering bubbling over with plenty of features, surprises and novelties, blended with pretty and tuneful songs, bright lines and side-splitting situations. Salem Tutt Whitney will as usual be supported by J. Homer Tutt and Blanche Thompson and "The Smart Set Company." The organization is known far and wide as one of the best of its kind in the theatrical firmament. There are forty people in the cast whose efforts to amuse you in the past have earned for them an enviable reputation. The title part is said to afford Whitney ample opportunity to display those talent which have helped to make his name a household word where wholesome humor is known and appreciated. Prices will be from 25 cents to $1.

Mary Miles Minter—Royal.

"Always in the Way," Charles K. Harris' famous song of the same name, has been picturized in five charming acts by the Metro-Quality Pictures Corporation, and furnishes the most beautiful sentimental drama yet at the Royal today. It is one of the most stirring, heart-interest pictures yet produced, as the song was, when published 12 years ago, and it also introduces for the first time in pictures that fascinating and dainty screen personality, Mary Miles Minter, who, still in her teens, has an enviable list of Broadway conquests.

For the production of "Always in the Way," 40 principal artists and a cast of 300 supporting players was required, and includes Franklin Coates, Mabel Green, Lowell Sherman, Harold Metzer, Charlotte Shelby, Hal Clarendon and Harry Blackmore. It was found necessary to journey to the Bahama Island to film the play in the most beautiful scenic surroundings, and the author of the song, Charles K. Harris, devoted six weeks to aiding in the production. The result is a heart impelling production of sublime interest, five acts of sentiment, with thrills and romance majestically interspersed.

Prof. Schweinsberg will present the appropriate music with the entire production.

Today at the Bijou.

Today the Bijou will fulfill its promise made last week and not filled owing to missed train connections, to give their patrons a rousing double bill of "The Diamond from the Sky", presenting both the 14th and 15th episodes of this thrilling serial, each in two reels, or a total of four reels—a solid hour of "The Diamond from the Sky."

If you miss this big double bill today, you will almost lose track of the theme of this stirring story of adventure and romance, as all four reels are chock full of exciting episodes and thrilling and unexpected situations and climaxes.

The 14th chapter takes up the life of all the principals where the 13th chapter left them in such uncertain positions last week. You will remember the plight of Quabba, the rich strike of Arthur, and the resolution that his brother makes to marry Esther. There are many great situations in the 14th, and with the 15th, it might be said that the second "section" of the serial begins, making some brand new developments. Don't miss this big double bill at the Bijou today. It will positively be presented, as the pictures are already here.

Chaplin at Grand Today.

Here you are; the greatest bargain ever offered to the movie fans. Two great attractions for the one admission of only five cents. Heading the program today, Charlie Chaplin, the greatest of all screen comedians will play a return engagement by request, presenting his famous two-act comedy that is without a doubt the funniest of all Chaplin comedies, entitled, "Shanghaied", this comedy is still fresh in the minds of the fortunate ones who were able to gain admission during his last engagement of a few weeks ago, and since that time the management has had so many requests for a return date of this funny picture that he felt it his duty to try and bring it back, and today is the day; so take advantage of this opportunity to drop in and have a good laugh. It drives away the blues.

What is declared to be one of the strongest Kalem productions ever presented on the screen is the Apaches of Paris," a four-act Broadway Favorites drama, and the vehicle for Joseph Smith and Laura Hamilton, two of the most famous dancers upon the stage. Mr. Smith, it will be remembered, introduced the Apache dance in this country some years ago. A revival of this dance is now taking place and therefore "The Apaches of Paris," built about the Apache dance, is of timely interest. The story tells of how a young American girl, who is studying music in Paris, succumbs to the machinations of an unscrupulous wretch. Later this man, Darcelle, tries to mete out the same fate to this girl's younger sister. Don't miss this extraordinary feature. It is positively wonderful both in photography and acting.

FEDERAL LEAGUE WILL INVADE NEW YORK CITY

Definitely Decided at Annual Meeting of Directors

Kansas City Franchise Forfeited, Club Will be Sent to New York and Strengthened—Grounds Already Secured.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9. — The Federal League today decided definitely to invade New York in 1916. League directors, in annual meeting here, announced that the Kansas City franchise had been forfeited and the club will be sent to New York and strengthened so that it "will merit the support of the New York fans." James A. Gilmore, re-elected president of the league, stated that grounds had been obtained on Manhattan Island for the New York club. He said plans had been submitted for stands to seat 55,000 and that the league would be ready for operation in New York at the beginning of the 1916 season.

The Buffalo franchise also was forfeited, but it is understood that the owners will reorganize and that Buffalo will have a place in the league next season.

In addition to Mr. Gilmore, the league named George S. Ward, Brooklyn, as vice president and Thomas W. Gilmore, of Chicago, secretary.

Reports from the clubs were received and "after consideration of all the facts," read a statement, "we felt that we were well rewarded for our operations in 1915." President Gilmore said no games had been protested.

After the meeting the majority of the club owners departed for French Lick, Ind., where it was reported they would meet representatives of organized baseball with a view to settling the "war" between the Federals and organized baseball.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 9.— The Georgia State Senate by a vote of 34 to 5 today passed the Mangham-Ransom bill prohibiting liquor advertisements in any form in Georgia. The measure makes such advertisement a misdemeanor.

Leghorn, Italy, Nov. 9. — The British steamer Nolisement from Newport News for Genoa, before reported aground outside of this port, has been floated and arrived here.

Turn This Over In Your Mind

Teach your dollars to have more "cents," by using Larabee's Best Flour. Makes more and better bread.

Gluten is the strength or nutrition in flour. Larabee's Best Flour contains about twenty per cent. more gluten than soft wheat flour.

Our law makers require analysis of nutrition shown on each bag of mill feed sold for horses, cows, sheep, hogs and goats, but are silent as the tomb about analysis on flour for men, women and children. Larabee's Best Flour would show an analysis much richer and better than soft wheat flour.

The rich nutty flavor in Larabee's Best Flour differentiates it from all other flours; it is milled by a special process which retains the natural wheat flavor.

Grandfather's corn meal made by his little water power mill, just over the hill, on a rill, had a special flavor which pleased Bill. "There's a reason." The slow process, crushing the grain.

Larabee's Best Flour is milled from the choice grades of best Kansas hard wheat. Especially prepared for those who are using soft wheat flour for biscuits, rolls, bread, cake and all pastry purposes.

Our wise men at one time thought the world was flat. School children today know it is round. Think and act right about your flour, which through your stomach you transform into blood, bone, muscle, mind and life. Larabee's Best Flour is manufactured by the Larabee Flour Mills Co., Hutchinson, Kansas.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it salivates; calomel injures your liver.

If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful, full of energy, vigor and ambition. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily and mailed to subscribers outside the county at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months; or served by carrier in the city and suburbs at 60c. per month, or, when paid in advance, $7.00 per year, $3.50 for six months, $1.75 for three months.

THE SUNDAY STAR by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51. Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable and all communications should be addressed to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

TOP O' THE MORNING

Thou hast made us for Thyself O Lord; and our heart is restless until it rests in Thee. —ST. AUGUSTINE.

Yes, Congress is to meet next month and then some pyrotechnics will be erupted.

"British blockade pronounced ineffective, illegal and indefensible." Whadye mean—"ineffective?" We had opined that it was diabolically effective.

If it is true that 250,000 Jerseymen promised their wives to vote for woman suurage, the result of the election indicates more or less perfidy.

No doubt all the European belligerents would call for the calf rope if they thought there was one long and strong enough to get them out of the hole.

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot: "A South Carolina contemporary wants to know what Mr. Bryan is after." Well, isn't he after what he is getting?

If we thought we could defeat the national duty plan of President Wilson, we wouldn't do it for fear we couldn't look Uncle Sam in the face in the midst of his worries.

When Colonel Roosevelt visited Europe he tried to tell the monarchical powers how to run their governments. Probably they would like for Teddy to go over and "sub" for them at this time.

Weather prediction: Some of these days there is going to be a change in the temperature just so November won't think it is a summer month. Just at present there is a decided tendency to resume surf bathing.

The Italian cabinet had a row a few days ago and it is stated that a book and many epithets were hurled. Few of us would know what an Italian epithet is, but we would know enough to dodge a book in Italian.

Lilly Langtry, who has come over to this country, is to tour the country in a dramatic production. She is now 6.. years old, but lots of old-fashioned gentlemen remember her as the world's famous beauty whose picture they carried in a wallet some 40 years ago.

Says the Charleston News and Courier: "President Wilson has decided not to reply to Mr. Bryan's attack. Is watchful waiting to be employed against its inventor?" By deciding to refrain from anything like replies, rejoinders and retorts, President Wilson will save himself a lot of verbosity.

We would never do our best if we had no rival or competitor who is doing his best. The spark of capability and alertness in us lies dormant unless there be attrition to make the sparks fly. Without striving and contending, man would soon become a mere bump on a log. The dry rot is the fate of a city, a business or a man when neither has to go hustling to keep in the game with others. We get a move on us only because we are compelled to do it or get left.

Colonel Bryan was mistaken in thinking that President Wilson had simply started an argument. The President only took occasion to state that adequate preparedness would be wisdom for America, and that is so common sensely axiomatic that its opponents might as well have a butting match with a buffalo as to butt in with what they think are arguments against a national duty. Disputing is inadmissable when there's a national duty for us to perform.

Women used to be burned in Massachusetts on the charge that they were witches, but those who made it hot for the old ladies have been dead a long time. Probably a few family skeletons is all that is left of the people who grew suspicious of poor old women who got in the snaggle tooth class. People living today are only responsible for what happens now, but people everywhere should be careful not to entertain the idea that those who disagree with them ought to be hamstrung in a metaphorical sense.

PRESIDENT KENLY OPTIMISTIC.

President John R. Kenly, of the Atlantic Coast Line, was in Baltimore a few days ago and was a guest at the Belvedere hotel where he remained till Monday. He went to Baltimore after a visit to Washington.

The Baltimore Sun on Monday contained an interview with President Kenly and he is quoted as saying that "optimism and a firm belief that better times are gradually coming is doing wonders for the South." He told The Sun that business conditions generally were better in the South in September and October than during the same months of 1914, and he added that reports of business on the Atlantic Coast Line show that conditions are rapidly becoming normal. However, he expects a falling off in the fertilizer trade, which brings great revenue to his line. He also expects a falling off in the transportation of citrus fruits from Florida. In a general way he knows that conditions are getting normal and that "because of the returning confidence, the people of the South are spending more money in luxuries, especially automobiles." He gave The Sun this general view of Southern conditions and prospects:

"While agricultural conditions have only slightly improved, the people of the South are beginning to believe that prosperity is ahead, and this feeling of confidence is better than big crops. The South made much money from 1910 to 1914, and the idea that the people are poor is wrong. That's why the 'buy-a-bale' did great harm, for the impression got abroad that the South was starving, which was far from the case.

"Last year there was a cotton crop of about 16,000,000 bales. Warehouses in the principal Southern cities are filled with cotton and the owners hope to see the product rise to 15 and even to 20 cents. If it does there will be much wealth. The coming crop will be a short one, not more than 11,000,000 bales, if reports be true. The cottonseed industry has grown to immense proportions and there is great wealth in it.

"You of the North are going to pay more for your grapefruit this year. About 9,000,000 crates were shipped from the South last year, but this year there will be about 1,000,000 less, owing to a shortage in all citrus fruit.

"Our road is buying equipment gradually. We are not looking for a sudden boom. Prosperity like we had a few years ago is coming gradually, not with a rush, as some might expect. We have just placed a large rail order and we are laying in new locomotives and cars to be in readiness to take care of all business that comes our way.

"One of the evidences of confidence among the people is the great number of automobiles coming into use. In every little town one can see machines running and out on the roads one meets thousands of the machines. In every small town the moving picture theatres are doing big business. In the large towns the theatres are well patronized. The people are in a happy frame of mind, and you know that means more than tremendous crops."

President Kenly pointed to the growing trade with Cuba and remarked that much business southbound from the North is coming to the railroads of the South because of increasing trade with Cuba. Large ferryboats, he stated, are carrying train after train of loaded cars from Key West to Havana. Cuban fruits and vegetables are brought back, and it is his conviction that the trade is bound to grow to larger proportions.

A HATED NATION.

Colonel Bryan declares that no nation is to be feared by the United States, as none has any enmity towards this country and therefore has no reason to attack it. On the contrary, in his speech to the Massachusetts branch of the National Security League, last Saturday night in Boston, the Hon. Joseph H. Choate declared that the United States "is one of the richest and most hated nations in the world." Being one of the richest is true and being the most hated may also be true, while the probability is that the richer America becomes the more enemies it will have. Whether our nation is hated or not by foreign peoples, none of their governments love it or any of its institutions. Theirs are monarchies while ours is just the opposite. There can be little doubt that the New York World covers the ground when it says:

"America since its rise from poverty to a power in the world has always been the object of more or less envy and jealousy, and from these feelings to one of hatred the steps are not many or long. It is not an attitude in Europe peculiar to this period of the great war. We were used to it before, and as the causes are well known to be unrelated to international covetousness and aggression we have been able to stand it with a good conscience. The man who insists upon minding his own business and living his own life, and who prospers therein, is always the object of envy if not hatred from his quarreling and meddlesome neighbors. One difference between what was and what is respecting Europe in relation to the United States is that, whereas before those nations were so absorbed in their own mutual envies and jealousies and hatreds as to have no time for any aggressive manifestation of the same feelings toward us, they will after this war be long lacking in the power if not the time. Another difference is that in such a blood-letting there is a drain upon the humors in those imperialistic bodies politic which promises a little more sanity in their international relations."

Indeed, war may sober them but if it has had the same effect on them as it has had on us, they will keep up their armies and navies on even a larger scale. We fear they will, and, therefore, we are to carry out a programme of adequate preparedness so we can be on the safe side as to the future.

Unk Rastus was about right when he remarked: "Jess as soon as white gemmen gets together dey starts er conversation. From dat dey goes to talkin', and jess as soon as somebody says som'p'n it starts up er discussion. Den dey gits into er argument, and when dar ain nothin' to it dey goes to bettin' and losin' what money dey was lowed to have when dey lef' home."

WILL SELL DANISH WEST INDIES

A Copenhagen dispatch announces that the government of Denmark is willing to sell the island of St. Thomas and her other island possessions in the West Indies. Councilor of State Hagemann declares that if the question of selling the Danish West Indies again arises he is sure it will receive favorable consideration, as it is useless for Denmark to continue to spend large sums on them without gaining any benefit. He added that Porto Rico is an example of the beneficent effects of American rule.

Is that a hint that the preferable purchaser would be the United States? If the islands are likely to be sold, the United States certainly ought to buy them, for their nearness to the Panama Canal renders them of strategic if not commercial importance. Since this government has to protect the canal, St. Thomas would be a menace in powerful foreign hands, while it would be vitally important to the United States as a defense base for the northern approach of the isthmian waterway. The island practically is midway between New York and Colon, being 1,400 miles from the former and 1,000 miles from the latter. It is said that several European nations covet the islands and that about 15 years ago when Denmark offered them to the United States for $4,000,000, German influences blocked the sale. It is said that Germany now has or has had a coaling station on one of the islands.

The Danish West Indies are a small ground of islands lying from 40 to 50 miles east and southeast of Porto Rico, which belongs to the United States. St. Thomas, the nearest to Porto Rico, has 11,000 population, mostly negroes. St. Croix, which is twice the size of St. Thomas and has 20,000 population, is farther away from Porto Rico. St. John, another one of the islands, is half the size of St. Thomas and has 1,000 population. Altogether the islands possibly have a population of 35,000. The principal exports from them are sugar, molasses and rum.

The Danish West Indies are right on the ocean lane into the Panama Canal and would be dangerous to it if they were in the hands of a strong naval power hostile to the United States.

PROBLEM OF DRUG HABITUES.

State Should Make Provision, Opinion of Dr. J. Howell Way.

(State Board of Health.)

It is the opinion of Dr. J. Howell Way, of Waynesville, president of the North Carolina State Board of Health, that the State should provide for the examination and treatment of narcotic habitues as a wise and patriotic public policy. He cites the example of the progressive state of Michigan along this line which provides that persons addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors or narcotic drugs may be declared, by a probate judge, after due examination, incompetent, and a guardian of his or her person and property may be appointed. Dr. Way believes that the sale of hypodermic syringes should be registered and restricted to physicians' prescriptions in North Carolina as in the state of New York, as these instruments are used solely for the introduction of narcotics or stimulants into the human body.

A movement is now on foot in New York State to secure the passage of a model anti-narcotic law, which law, Dr. Way believes, will have an experience like the model vital statistics law. It went the rounds of the various state legislatures, gradually winning favor, until finally it has been adopted as a model for all the states.

But Dr. Way says, in speaking of the duty of the medical profession toward promoting the beneficial results that are hoped to accrue from the Harrison Anti-Narcotic law, that to properly impress patients with the dangers of the careless use of this class of remedies is where physicians can do the greatest good.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A Charlotte man in Washington recently had the curiosity to look up the house leased by Senator Overman, having been led by newspaper reports to expect a palace. He found, on the contrary, that the home leased by the Senator, while located in what might be termed an exclusive section of Washington, is in itself rather a modest affair and quite on a par with the Senators home in Salisbury. But ever since Overman was put in the paper class of millionaires, he has had to pay the penalty, even to the levying of a senatorial value on his appendix, besides having become regarded as legitimate timber for the loan-tappers. As a matter of fact, Overman is one of the statesmen who lives under the single standard of manners and his shoeshine bill in Washington is about the same as it is in Salisbury.—Charlotte Observer.

The pretended British blockade of Germany is 'not a blockade in law, in practice or in effect." It is "ineffective, illegal and indefensible." It does not "distinguish between enemy and neutral trade." The United States "will not submit to the curtailment of neutral rights;" it will not accept British municipal law as a substitute for International law, and it will present claims for wrongs done through diplomatic channels. With these propositions clearly set forth, the long-awaited American note to the British government serves formal notice that as a champion of the rights and interests of neutrals the United States refuses to recognize the so-called blockade of Germany. The blockade is denounced as spurious for reasons often mentioned in these columns. It never was lawfully proclaimed. It never has been effective as against the greater part of the German coast, which faces the Baltic. Failing to blockade enemy ports, Great Britain has in fact blockaded neutral ports, and, although preventing American commerce from reaching these ports, it has quite thriftly maintained its own trade with the ports thus closed to others. Secretary Lansing does not fail to point out that in this and other respects Great Britain is not only violating international law but is running counter to its own contentions for many years past. It does not, as the law requires, search ships at sea and determine their character forthwith. On the contrary, it seizes them on mere suspicion and takes them to port where they are held indefinitely at great loss to consignors, who, instead of being proved guilty, are required to establish their innocence. On such a showing of outrage as is here made, the terms of the American protest, which are lawyer-like throughout, must be regarded as exceedingly temperate. To gain a military advantage more or less important, Great Britain has become a grievous offender against law, against its own cherished principles, against several of the small nations of Europe which it has assumed to champion and against the best and most powerful friend that it has among the neutrals of the earth. It has not killed Americans; it has killed American rights. It has done more than seize American property; it has seized the opportunity wantonly gained to extend its own trade. For the United States to pursue these wrongs through diplomatic channels will be patiently and submissively to keep books on offenses that amount to a denial of American sovereignty. Thus far that has not been a popular occupation in the United States. If even a gleam of sense can penetrate Downing Street, the British government must soon perceive that unless it changes its methods its own accounants will have something to do presently.—New York World.

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 9. — B. E. Jeer, president of the Judson Cotton Mill here, today was notified that 400 of the 700 striking employees were willing to return to work. He announced that the mill would resume operations November 15. The 300 other operatives are said to be determined to continue on strike because the mill management refuses to reinstate 27 families of workmen.

ENLARGE THE SCOPE OF THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Public Health Workers to be Associate Members.

Division Into Sections for Specialized Study and Discussion—Many Changes Made at Meeting Last Night.

Far-reaching plans for enlarging the scope of the organization of the New Hanover Medical Society were adopted at a meeting last night which it is believed will result in greatly increasing its usefulness and will make it an important factor in community service. All public health workers, pharmacists and dentists will be invited to become associate members of the organization and will be urged to lend their assistance in helping the society to be of service to all its members as well as to the entire community. Provision was also made for inviting colored physicians of reputable standing to attend the meetings of the society, which will hereafter be held monthly in the Chamber of Commerce.

So far as known Wilmington is the first city in the South and one of the very few in the entire country to widen its scope to include others in addition to members of the medical profession. It was also decided at the meeting last night to divide the society into sections which will be devoted particularly to the study of a specialty and each section will submit reports at the monthly meetings. These changes in the organization were made upon the recommendation of a committee which was appointed several weeks ago.

There was a large attendance at the meeting last night which was held in the office of the mayor at the city hall and there was evidence of increased interest in the work of the organization. The physicians of the city are manifesting a most commendable spirit of public service and the present plans for making the society one of real service to the community has aroused greater enthusiasm than has been evident in a number of years.

Dr. John C. Wessell, president of the society, presided last night and a record of the proceedings was kept by Dr. Ernest Bulluck, secretary of the society. All of the new additions to the medical profession, who have recently moved to the city, were received as members.

Eloquent tribute was paid to the members of the society who have died within the past two years, the papers being appreciative sketches which were prepared by different members of the society. Those in whose memory papers were read were Dr. E. W. Bulluck, Dr. A. D. McDonald, Dr. Thos. S. Burbank, Dr. M. M. Caldwell, Dr. J. H. Bornemann, Dr. Chas. T. Harper and Dr. Frank H. Russell.

The division of the society into sections is expected to contribute greatly to the improvement of its work. While the sections are devoted to a special feature of medical practice in a general way, the different members of each section will make studies in more specialized fields in which they may be interested which will be embodied in reports to the society. The different sections with the members of each are as follows:

General Surgery—Dr. Slocum, chairman; Drs. Cranmer, Green, Hooper, Mebane, Robertson, Bowdoin and Bulluck.

General Medicine—Dr. Harriss, chairman; Drs. Bellamy, Graham, Dickey, Pridgen, Strosnider, Wessell, Wood, Sidbury, Schonwald, Willingham, H. Moore, Stovall, W. Hall and P. P. Causey.

Public Health—Dr. Nesbitt, chairman; Drs. Thames, Carroll and Mr. Catlett, (associate).

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat—Dr. Koonce, chairman; Drs. Galloway, Tait Moore, Honnet, LeGwin and Murphy.

Gynecology and Obstetrics—Dr. Akerman, chairman; Drs. Bolles and Croom.

"IN TO THE FINISH"

Hon. J. A. Brown Has No Idea of Withdrawing from Congress Race.

Local political circles were agog yesterday upon the arrival of the Scottish Chief, published by the astute Sixth district observer, Col. W. B. Harker, of Maxton, bearing the following announcement in its editorial columns:

"We have been informed that Hon. J. A. Brown, of Columbus, has withdrawn from the contest for the Congressional nomination There was not a better man in the field than Joe Brown. We understand that Mr. Young, of Harnett, has decided to enter the race, so there remain five candidates in the Sixth district."

The news was most interesting, if the Chief had been informad correctly, so the Star at once sent the following telegram:

"Hon. J. A. Brown, Chadbourn, N. C.

"Maxton Scottish Chief reports information you have withdrawn. Wire confirmation or denial."

The telegraph was evidently not quick enough, for in less time than it took to file the telegram of inquiry, the long distance telephone was back with the reply: "Mr. Brown states that he will be in the race to the finish. There's on foundation whatever for the report that he will withdraw."

And so at once was set at rest a rumor that promised to alter considerably the Congressional situation in the entire "bloody Sixth."

Recording Secretary H. E. Walton, of Orion Lodge, No. 67, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is sending out requests to all members of that and sister lodges, to be present tonight at 8 o'clock at the regular meeting of the lodge, at which Grand Secretary B. H. Woodel, of Raleigh, will be present.

The notices state that business of importance will be transacted and that it demands attention.

Two Interesting Suits Started.

Two suits were started yesterday in Superior court through Kenan & Stacy, attorneys, against Mr. C. E. Greenamyer, formerly of Wilmington, but now of New York, in which attachment papers were served on Mr. J. V. Grainger, vice president of the Murchison National Bank, where Mr. Greenamyer is supposed to have on deposit about $5,000 and $6,000. One of the suits was brought for Mr. W. B. Cooper for $2,800 and the other for the Bank of Pembroke for $2,500.

MUCH BUILDING PROMISED

Sunset Park and Wilmington Beach Are Both Planning Big Things in Very Near Future.

Plans are beginning to mature for activity in the building line in the suburbs of Wilmington. Announcement was made yesterday that the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, owners of Sunset Park, located just south of the city, are planning the immediate construction of 17 new residences. The plans for the buildings are being prepared by Mr. B. H. Stephens, the architect, who will supervise the building of the residences, and bids for the construction will be opened next Tuesday.

This is renewed activity that has had a setback some time ago. There are already 19 residences in the attractive suburb and the new ones will be quite a dsirable addition. The capital outlay is estimated at about $40,000 or $50,000. The different houses will be of different models. This suburb has its own water and sewerage plant, and purchasers will be given the service free for five years, it is stated. They is a well 201 feet deep and a pump that has a capacity of 60,000 gallons a day.

A request was recently made to the County Board of Education for a school teacher and the residents furnished the building. Miss Mary Wright Taylor is teacher, and hass 21 pupils. Mr. C. C. Chadbourn is president of the company that owns the suburb; Mr. D. N. Chadwick, Jr., is secretary and treasurer, and Mr. W. E. Price is general manager. A number of prominent business men of the city are on the board of directors.

Mr. W. E. Price is also general manager of the Wilmington Beach Corporation, and following the announcement Monday that the improved road from the "Loop" to Wilmington Beach will be completed by early next spring, he announced that a number of cottages will be built there before next season. Two houses of the bungalow type are already under construction. One by Mr. U. A. Underwood, will cost $1,200, and one by Mr. H. E. Longley will cost $1,000.

Mr. Price stated yesterday that the terminus of the bus line to be operated by the Auto Transit Company will be Ocean Boulevard, Wilmington Beach and with this added convenience of travel, he predicted that as many as 40 cottages and homes would be built there in time for use during the season of 1916. Contracts have been made for the construction of 15 cottages, and 400 lots have been sold.

PENSION BOARD MEETS.

Policemen Will be Assessed 75 Cents a Month for Relief Fund.

A meeting of the police pension board was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the office of Mayor Moore. Mr. Bernice Moore, chairman of the board, presided at the meeting. The other members, Mr. J. T. King and Capt. Walter G. MacRae, were also present. Report was made that between $700 and $800 is now in the treasury. It was decided to levy an assessment of 75 cents a month on each policeman in active service after January 1st, this to go to the pension fund. Arrangements will also be made for a relief fund for use in cases of sickness or accident. As soon as there is a sufficient fund in hand to justify it, the board will formulate plans for pensioning those who are too old for active service or who have become disabled.

MAY OPERATE ALL LOCAL THEATRES EXCEPT ACADEMY.

Deluca Bros. Negotiate With Howard & Wells—No Papers Signed.

It was reported yesterday that Messrds. Howard & Wells, owners of the Bijou and Royal theatres, had leased the Grand and Victoria, thus getting charge of all the theatres in the city except the Academy of Music.

It was understood that the papers were to be signed yesterday afternoon, but nothing definite had been done last night. Messrs. Howard and Wells are progressive amusement men. Both the Victoria and the Grand are owned by Mr. J. M. Solky, and are leased to Deluca Bros.

GIVEN SENTENCE IN PRISON

Fall Term of Federal Court Convened Yesterday—Two Men Convicted of Illicit Distilling.

G. W. J. Currie, of Robeson county, who was convicted in Federal Court yesterday afternoon of illicit distilling, was sentenced by Judge H. G. Connor to serve a term of two years in the Federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs in the case. Ira J. Wilkes, of the same county, was also convicted of illicit distilling, but sentence was not pronounced. Both are white men. Capt. W. H. Ward, a steamboat engineer on the Cape Fear, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of sending indecent matter through the mails, and was ordered to pay the costs.

Court was convened yesterday morning by Judge Connor and after the grand jury was drawn, Mr. W. A. French, of this city, was named as foreman. Judge Connor made an able charge in which he outlined briefly the duties of the jurors. There were several applicants for naturalization, but on account of failure to comply with the regulations only one, Mr. Newton Fisher, of this city, was naturalized. He is a native of Scotland.

Hon. F. D. Winston, of Windsor, United States District Attorney, is prosecuting for the government, and is assisted by Assistant District Attorney Green, of Newbern. Mr. W. T. Dortch, of Goldsboro, United States marshal, is also here, to look after his duties.

There are many witnesses in attendance and a number of out-of-town attorneys.

The charge to the grand jury lasted about an hour. Judge Connor first stated that the court owed the jurymen an apology for calling them away from their homes and their work, but that jury duty was a duty that every citizen owes the country, and that men should feel honored to be given the privilege of thus serving the country. Violation of the prohibition laws was especially emphasized, and many details of prosecuting violators were referred to.

The following is the list of grand jurors: Messrs. W. A. French, foreman; New Hanover. F. L. Potter, Duplin; J. Herbert Johnson, New Hanover; D. J. Corbett, Pender; D. T. Frayar, Sampson; J. M. Wallace, Duplin; E. J. Grimsley, Columbus; L. C. Spell, Sampson; Martin E. Barr, Sampson; Filemore Register, Columbus; Clyde Bell, Pender; J. L. Costin, Pender; W. I. Hall, Duplin; John L. Grady, Duplin; E. B. Bishop, Duplin; W. W. Galloway, New Hanover; Ravenwood Sidbury, New Hanover; Kelly W. Jewell, New Hanover.

The petit jury is composed of the following: Messrs. A. B. Pridgen, G. Henry Haar, Simeon Garner, Fred Alpine, E. W. Fuhr, N. B. Barefoot, A. Atkinson, E. R. Meares, N. W. Hester, H. M. Jackson, J. L. Simmons, J. M. Stanley.

NEW BALTIMORE VESSEL

Norwegian Steamer Anita Renamed Elizabeth Williams.

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun has the following of local interest:

With American registry to protect her, flying the Stars and Stripes and named after a Baltimore matron, the former Norwegian steamer Anita, with the name of Elizabeth Williams and Baltimore as her port, came up yesterday from the yards of the Baltimore Drydock and Shipbuilding Company, where over $50,000 was expended upon her. She had been wrecked in the West Indies and was salved by a wrecking company, which later sold her as she lay in New York very badly damaged. Through Vice-President Evans, of the Baltimore shipbuilding plant, she was purchased for Mason L. W. Williams, president of the Baltimore and Carolina Steamship Company, an enterprise that Baltimore merchants are fast recognizing as an important coastwise transportation company carrying cargo between this port and Wilmington, Georgetown and Charleston.

The Elizabeth Williams, as the Anita, was built at Christiana, Norway, in 1906. She is a vessel of 734 tons net register and will carry about 1,300 tons deadweihght cargo. Being light draft, she will make a valuable addition to the Williams fleet. She is to be in command of Capt. L. H. Hudgins, who took the steamer Henry Williams to Bremen with one of the few cargoes of cotton permitted to be landed in Germany by the British blockade. Next Friday the Williams will said on her steamer Berkshire, of the Merchants and Miners' Line, will be withdrawn.

FIELD ORGANIZER.

Mr. C. E. Haskett Now With State Department of Agriculture.

Mr. C. E. Haskett, of Wilmington, who served last spring as the capable general manager of the Wilmington Co-Operative Truckers' Association and during the early fall as the manager of the Carolina Potato Exchange at Elizabeth City, was recently appointed field agent and general organizer of the State Department of Agriculture and has already entered actively upon his work. He assisted in putting the Carolina Potato Exchange upon a substantial basis.

During the past few weeks he organized active co-operative marketing associations at Alliance, Pantego, Smyrna and Aurora. He will go next to Chadbourn to assist in perfecting the organization of the strawberry growers in that section.

MILLER-HANSON BOUT CANCELED

Trying to Get Another Wrestler for Match Friday Night

Joe Miller, who was scheduled to wrestle Fritz Hanson at Woolvin Hall Friday night, wired the management of the club yesterday that he had dislocated his shoulder and would have to cancel the match for this week. The message stated that a letter followed in which it would be explained that he would meet Hanson later.

The management of the club was busy trying to arrange for a match for Friday night. If a good man acn be found, who might make it interesting for the Swede, the local fans will see a match anyway.

Edwards, Latta, S. C.

Recorder Continues All Cases.

Recorder Empie had only four cases yesterday and continued every one. There were three for vagrancy. Nora Sumter and Frank Hooper, Jr., will get hearings today, while May Green, colored, will get a hearing tomorrow. Nathan Crawford, colored, will be given trial today on a charge of shooting at his wife, Maggie Crawford, with a pistol last April. Crawford had evaded the officers since April, until recently.

From Weak and Lame To Well and Strong

Try them. Foley Kidney Pills will do for other men and women—quickly—what they have done for Mrs. Straynge.

"Last year, I got almost down with my back," writes Mrs. H. T. Straynge of Gainesville, Ga., R. No. 3. "I suffered from inflammation of the bladder, and whenever I stopped doctoring I grew worse. I tried Foley Kidney Pills, and after taking them awhile my bladder action became regular and the stinging sensation disappeared. I am now stronger in my back than I've been for several years, and since getting well, I've stayed well and had no return of the trouble."

Start in now to use Foley Kidney Pills. You will feel an improvement from the very first doses, showing how quickly they act on kidneys and bladder. They stop irregular urinary action, ease pain in back and sides, limber up stiff joints and aching muscles. They put the kidneys and bladder in sound, healthy condition. Try them.

FALLING ROOF VICTIM DEAD

Daniel McCaslin, Colored, Died Early Yesterday Morning—Mr. V. B. Webb Badly Injured.

Daniel McCaslin, the colored locomotive fireman, caught in the debris of the falling roof of the A. C. L. roundhouse, died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock in the James Walker Memorial Hospital from a fractured skull, the fracture reported as being made when he was caught in the falling roof. McCaslin had just reached the roundhouse to board his engine and make ready from his trip to Florence, S. C., his home, with a through freight. He was pulled from under the engine in an unconscious condition and was taken to the hospital where he died soon after.

Mr. V. B. Webb, a machinist of the city, was reported last night from the James Walker Memorial Hospital to be in a dangerous condition, being internally injured. Matthew Sherrill, colored, is reported to be out of danger and only slightly hurt.

Most of the wreckage was cleared away yesterday, but it was not yet determined why the heavy roof, which was constructed of steel and heavy timbers, gave away so suddenly, and without warning. It weighty many tons, and was thought to be well braced. A number of engines in the roundhouse to be cleaned were also damaged, when the falling mass came down on them. The cost of the collapse was estimated yesterday to be about $15,000.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer has been commissioned by Governor Craig as a delegate to the Third National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits to be held in Chicago November 29th to December 2nd, 1915.

—Probable cause was found yesterday by Justice Harriss in the case of W. H. Mills, colored, who is implicated in the recent store lifting from the store of J. H. Rehder & Co., and the case was sent to Superior Court.

—Mrs. John D. Broughton reported to the police yesterday that an attempt had been made the previous night to enter her home at No. 616 Red Cross street. Officers Coleman and Leon George made an investigation and decided that a window had been left up inadvertently as nothing was missing from the house.

Funeral of Young Daughter.

The funeral of little Miss Lillian Paul, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paul, who was accidentally fatally injured Sunday when she was thrown from a buggy and later died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, was conducted yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock from the residence, No. 12 1-2 South Second St., by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Funeral of Young Son.

The funeral of Frank C. Clements, Jr., the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Clements, whose death occurred Sunday at their home, No. 18 Ashe street, was held yesterday morning and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Valvary Baptist church. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

HELP CANNING CLUB GIRLS

Mrs. Bayne Makes Earnest Appeal to Housewives—Mr. Haskett Speaks on Co-Operation—Officers.

That the canning club girls of North Carolina have produced this year over 600,000 cans of vegetables and fruits was the interesting information brought yesterday to the members of the Housewives' League by Mrs. Bayne, who is connected with the home demonstration work of the State Department of Agriculture, in an instructive address in which she made an earnest appeal that the women of Wilmington would help in the canning club movement by buying them when they are placed on the market.

Mr. C. E. Haskett, of Wilmington, who is now field agent and organizer for the State Department of Agriculture, made a short address on the benefits of co-operation and showed the splendid work that has been done in this direction in North Carolina.

There was quite a large attendance and following the addresses and the cordial endorsement of the work that Mrs. Bayne and Mr. Haskett are doing, a number of routine matters were taken up.

Mrs. G. H. Croom, who was elected president at the last meeting to serve for the ensuing year, presided yesterday. The other newly elected officers are as follows: Vice president, Mrs. F. W. Fletcher; treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Galloway; recording secretary, Mrs. R. E. Williams; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Willard Wells; auditor, Mrs. W. P. Cline. Mrs. Walter Sprunt and Miss Ida Black were elected members of the executive committee.

Deed for Royal Theatre.

A deed was filed for record yesterday by which Mr. A. O. Schuster and wife transfer to Messrs. Howard and Wells the lot on the west side of Front street, 66 feet south of Chestnut, 44 by 125 feet in size, this being the site of the new Royal theatre. The transfer of property was made last spring. The following deeds were also filed for record: Anderson Stroud and wife, of Wayne county, to Ella Johnson, for $100 and othher valuable considerations, lot on the southwest corner of Twelfth and Wooster streets, 50 by 99 feet in size; C. C. Chadbourn to C. B. Parmele, for $100 and other valuable considerations, lot on the west side of Fourteenth street, 154 feet south of Castle, 33 by 155 feet in size.

Cosmetics Not Needed; Peel the Skin Instead

One reason mercolized wax is so strongly recommended is that it really takes the place of several different cosmetics, saving time, patience and expense. It is better than any cleansing cream, better than any massage cream, and better than any rouge, for accomplishing the results for which such articles are used. As the wax actually absorbs an old, faded or discolored cuticle, a little each day, the underlying skin which gradually appears, is clearer, softer, healthier-hued and more youthful than any cosmetic-made complexion. Spreading on a thin coat of this wax at night, washing it off mornings, in a week or so produces a marvelous transformation. Just one ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, will do the work. There's nothing better to remove freckles, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, blotches, pimples or blackheads.

For wrinkles and loose, saggy skin, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel, is the best thing that can be recommended. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties.

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak.

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N.Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. The doctors said I had poor blood and what I had was turning to water. I took different medicines which did not help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED CHACE, R. No. 2, Macedon, N.Y.

The Change of Life.

BELTSVILLE, MD.—"By the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I have successfully passed through a most trying time, the Change of Life. I suffered with a weakness, and had to stay in bed three days at a time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I am praising it for the benefit of other women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. W. S. DUVALL, Route No. 1, Beltsville, Md.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COTTON SLIGHTLY HIGHER

Sharp Rally Follows Early Decline to New Low Level for the Movement

New York Nov. 9. — An early decline carried the cotton market into new low ground for the movement today, but sharp rallies followed with January selling up from 11.40 to 11.62, and closing at 11.58. The general list closed steady, 3 to 5 points net higher. The market opened 3 to 8 points up, in response to steady cables and private reports that Southern spot holders were not following the futures decline. The weather map, however, showed no damaging temperatures which was disappointing to yesterday's buyers, while Liverpool was a seller here and the market soon weakened under this pressure, Wall street and Southern selling.

Stop orders were uncovered on the break into new low ground for the movement, with December contracts selling down to 11.28; March to 11.61, and May to 11.75. At this decline of about $9 per bale from the season's high records on January contracts, prices steadied on covering of shorts.

Spot houses or trade interests were moderate buyers and the demand grew more active during the forenoon on reports of a steadier spot situation.

The rally carried December up to 11.47, March to 11.84, and May to 11.97, with the close 3 or 4 points off from the best, under realizing.

Talk of an improving spot demand was the prominent feature of the afternoon advance.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Moderate Declines and Small Advances Feature the Market.

New Orlean, Nov. 9.—Small advances and moderate declines featured the cotton market today. There was little decline trend. Late in the session steadiness was shown, but the fundation for this appeared to be nothing more than vary vague peace rumors. The close was at a net gain of 5 to 7 points.

Opening prices were 8 points over yesterday's close on the strength of Liverpool. This was the highest of the day. Offerings became heavy, shorts increasing their commitments while longs liquidated. The slow trading in the spot department appeared to be one of the main reasons for the selling, although reports from the interior claimed that spots were as firmly held as ever and that many producers were taking advantage of the facilities offered by the Federal Reserve Banks for money with which to carry their cotton. At the lowest prices were at a net decline of 13 to 15 points.

Throughout the session the market had a fairly easy undertone on fear of a change for the worse in the weather over the belt.

Futures closing: December 11.29; January 11.46; March 11.71; May 11.80; July 11.97.

Spot quiet, 12 points off. Sales on the spot 145 bales, to arrive 2,300. Middling 11.25.

WHEAT MARKET IS NERVOUS

Bearish Sentiment Stimulated by Rapid Enlargement of Stocks, Domestic and Foreign.

Chicago, Nov. 9. — Rapid enlargement of stocks, both domestic and foreign, tended today to stimulate bearish sentiment regarding wheat. The market closed nervous, ⅞@1 to 1¼c. net lower, with December at 1.02¼ and May at 1.03¼@⅜.

Corn showed a loss of a sixteenth for December, but ⅛@⅝ advance for May; oats finished unchanged to ⅛c. lower, and provisions declined 5@35.

Grain and provisions closed:

Wheat — December, 1.02⅛; May, 1.03¼.

STOCKS STILL DECLINING

Heavy Liquidation of Monday Renewed With Greater Vigor Yesterday. New Minimum.

New York, Nov. 9.—The heavy liquidation which swept over yesterday's late market was renewed with greater vigor today, all parts of the list scoring new minimums for the current movement. The decline gathered increased force from professional sources, traders in general being active on the short side. Foreign offerings were also an important factor, estimates of London's sales ranging from 35,000 to 50,000 shares.

In fact, muen of the day's unsettlement was caused by pessimistic advices upon political and financial conditions affecting the allied nations, supplemented by unconfirmed rumors that large war orders were in danger of cancellation. Final prices were only a trifle above low levels for high grade securities while specialties made only nominal recoveries. Some of the extreme declines were: Studebaker 23 to 140, Willys-Overland 26 at 210, General Motors 20 at 370, Baldwin Locomotive 4 at 113, Tennessee Copper 5 at 51 and Great Northern Ore 3 at 46 1-2.

Shares in the so-called "near war class" like American Linseed common and preferred, United States Industrial Alcohol, Distillers Securities and American Coal Products lost 3 to 10 points. United States Steel among the few leaders to show actual strength at the opening, declined to 83 5-2, and closed at 84 3-8, a net gain of 1-4.

In the railways declines ran from 1 to 2 points, St. Paul, Norfolk and Western and the Southern lines showing least resistence.

Trading in these issues was broader than usual. Metal shares yielded much of their recent advance.

Among the railway returns of the day was that of the Missouri Pacific system showing a net decrease of $273,100 for September.

Bonds sagged in sympathy, some speculative issues makin appreciable declines. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,745,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

JUDGE WHEDBEE FOR CONGRESS?

Just Being Talked as a Possibility in First District?

(Special Star Correspondence).

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 9.—Judge H. W. Whedbee, Pitt county's contribution to the superior court bench, is being talked as a congressional possibility. It is said on good authority that his name is being frequently mentioned in the First district, where the Greenville jurist is at home and a prophet distinctly with hohor. So far as the public knows, Judge Whedbee has said nothing to indicate that he will make the race, but it is known that there are a number of his friends who favor his candidacy and may ask him to consider it.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of and pursuant to a decree of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of North Carolina, sitting in bankruptcy, in a cause therein pending entitled "In the Matter of G. Henry Haar, Bankrupt, in Bankruptcy," the undersigned duly elected Trustee in Bankruptcy will on Monday, the 29th day of November, 1915, at 12 o'clock M., at the court house door in New Hanover County, offer for sale for cash to the highest bidder, those certain tracts or parcels of land situated in the City of Wilmington, County of New Hanover, State of North Carolina, and bounded and described as follows:

FIRST TRACT.

Beginning at a point in the Northern line of Pender Ave., 82 ft. 6 in. East from the Northeast intersection of Pender Ave. and 20th Street and running thence North parallel to 20th Street 113 ft. to an alley; thence East parallel to Pender Ave. 49 ft. 6 in.; thence South parallel to 20th Street 113 ft. to the Northern line of Pender Ave.; thence West along Pender Ave. 49 ft. 6 in. to the beginning. Being all of Lot 9, and East half of Lot 10, in Block 21, according to the map of Carolina Place, which map is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover County, in Book 48, at page 180.

SECOND TRACT.

Beginning at a point in the Northern line of Princess Street 99 ft. East from the Northeast intersection of 16th and Princess Streets, and running thence North parallel to 16th Street 165 ft. to a ten foot alley; thence East parallel to Princess Street 33 ft.; thence South parallel to 16th Street 165 ft. to the Northern line of Princess Street; thence West along Princess Street 33 ft. to the beginning. Being part of Lots 3, 4 and 5, in Block 481, according to the official plan of Wilmington.

THIRD TRACT.

All of the right, title and interest of said Trustee in and to the following tract:

Beginning at a point in the Western line of Fifth Street 104 ft. South from its intersection with the Southern line of Nun Street, and running thence westwardly parallel to Nun Street 165 ft.; thence Southwardly parallel to Fifth Street 28 ft.; thence eastwardly parallel to Nun Street 165 ft. to the Western line of Fifth Street; thence Northwardly along the Western line of Fifth Street 28 ft. to the beginning, together with the right to use in common with the owner of the lot immediately North of this tract an alley 10 ft. in width and extending in depth 165 ft. This tract is subject to a mortgage to Wilmington Homestead & Loan Association for $1,000, and to a mortgage to Mary E. Sweeney for $750, and to the Homestead allotment of said G. Henry Haar as the same are recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover County.

The second tract above described is subject to a mortgage to Wilmington Homestead & Loan Association of $600, as the same is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover County.

This sale is made subject to confirmation by the Court. The bidding on the tract first above described will begin at $335.50. The bidding on the tract second above described will begin at $1,141.25.

DR. A. E. ALDERMAN HEARD IN RALEIGH

He and President Poe Address State Historical Society.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Dr. Rondthaler Elected President to Succeed Poe—Important Resolutions Adopted—Folk Lore Society Holds Annual Meeting.

(Special Star Telegram).

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—The State Literary and Historical Association tonight elected Howard E. Rondthaler, of Winston-Salem, as president, along with a strong personnel of associate officers; heard a brilliant address by President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, on "Permanent Democracy," and the annual address of Dr. Clarence Poe, retiring president. It was the final session of the sixteeth annual meeting of the association.

The officers elected follow: President, Howard E. Rondthaler, Winston-Salem; vice presidents, Elizabeth A. Colton, Raleigh; Francis D. Winston, Windsor, and W. C. Jackson, Greensboro; secretary-treasurer, R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh; executive committee, the officers and Miss Mary Shannon Smith, Raleigh; Major H. A. London, Pittsboro; J. L. Chambers, Charlotte; F. P. Hobgood, Oxford; E. K. Graham, Chapel Hill.

Dr. Alderman treated national and world problems from the viewpoint of working out a free democratic socialized life wherein the individual, as he expressed it, is not lost in a metaphorical super-state nor sunk in inaction and selfishness. He held that this can be attained by applying trained intelligence to its achievement and subjecting ourselves to the tests and disciplines that will bring it to pass. This, he declared, is the task of American democracy and, indeed, of a fuller deeper world-wide democracy. He said the effect of democracy has been to shift the center of gravity too much to the individual self and his immediate welfare.

"There must be a golden mean somewhere," declared Dr. Alderman, "and we must find it. When the great readjustment dawns, when the gaping wounds of war have healed, all the world will be seeking this golden mean, the social democrat of Germany, who is silent now in his national devotion, will be seeking it; the Russian peasant, inarticulate, mystic, reflective; the Frenchman, with his clear brain and forward looking soul; the Englishman, wrapped in his great tradition. Perhaps in our untouched and undreamed vigor, we shall become the champions of the great quest."

Proper and permanent organization of democracy, Dr. Alderman contended, must involve certain surrenders, social and political, and self abnegation in the interests of collectiveism. But he insisted all this can be done and yet retain in the family of freedom the shining jewel of individual liberty which has characterized this Republic from the beginning. He declared that what democracy needs is discipline of patient labor, trained skill, thoroughness in work and a more socialized conception of public duty.

President Poe Speaks.

In his annual address, President Clarence Poe insisted that there must be an exalting and ennobling ideal for the North Carolina of tomorrow; that there must be faith in the triumphs of that ideal and that there must be mobilization of all the forces in the State that look for the realization of that ideal. Mr. Poe proclaimed amid great enthusiasm his North Carolina creed to be: "I believe in North Carolina, her coming awakening, in the glory of her destiny; I believe that whatever of good or beauty or nobleness men in other lands or eras have wrought we men and women of North Carolina today and tomorrow, in the providence of God, may here and now achieve."

Resolutions Adopted

The association adopted a series of important resolutions that included endorsement of the movement for a proper celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the death of William Shakespeare, the interests of which are being pressed in this State by Mrs. Lindsay Patterson; urging that the Legislature provide for the creation of an art commission; pledging support to Congressman Pou in his efforts to have Congress provide a memorial to Andrew Johnson at Raleigh; approving a movement to provide tablets in the Capitol that shall bear the names of colonial and Revolutionary writers of history, and endorsing the movement of the Daughters of the Confederacy to appropriately mark the house near Manchester, Va., where Generals Stephen B. Ramseur and Johnston Petigrew died.

Folk Lore Society Meets

The North Carolina Folk Lofe Society, meeting in connection with the Literary and Historical Society, elected Dr. D. H. Hill as president; Edwin Greenlaw, Chapel Hill, and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, of Asheville, as vice-presidents; F. C. Browne, Durham, secretary-treasurer. President Haywood Parker, of Asheville, was unable to attend and an interesting letter from him was read by Secretary Browne. Mrs. Jno. C. Campbell, of Asheville, was unable to attend and sent a splendid paper on "The Variance of Overseas Ballads," which was read by Mr. Browne. There was a delightful rendering of old English and Scottish ballads by Mrs. T. E. Cheek, Durham, Mrs. Hall, of Raleigh, and Miss Helen Day, of Raleigh, and others. There was an interesting review of the work of the society the past year by Mr. Brown, the secretary, that was most gratifying in progress shown in gathering and preserving ballads that would otherwise soon be lost for all time.

TRAVELING EXHIBITS ON EXPORT MARKET CONDITIONS

To be Instituted for Benefit of Merchants and Manufacturers.

Washington, Nov. 9 — Traveling exhibits to demonstrate to American Manufacturers conditions in all the export markets of the world are to be instituted by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce in connection with its efforts to extend the foreign trade of the United States. These exhibits, the bureau announced today, will form part of a permanent display of samples to be maintained in New York.

HAVE ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

After Enjoyable Luncheon at Y. M. C. A. Rotary Club Discusses Many Matters of Interest.

Discordant knockers would have been wholly out of place at the luncheon of the Rotary Club yesterday at 1 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. for all of the discussions were along the lines of building up and advertising Wilmington. There was quietness and little disposition to whoop things up but the meeting was given over to the same discussion and consideration of plans for helping the city.

Mr. Eugene E. Barnett, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Hangchow, China, was to have addressed the Rotarians on business conditions in China, but unfortunately had been called to be at the bedside of a sick brother in Georgia. Mr. J. M. Clinton, who also spent some time in China, and was to have accompanied Mr. Barnett on his visit to Wilmington, was detained in Goldsboro because his train was detained by a hot box and he along with some dozen others missed their connections and had the pleasure of spending the day in Wayne's capital. However, this did not dampen the ardor of the Rotarians at all and instead of discussing conditions abroad, a profitable hour was spent talking about those at home.

President John R. Murchison yielded the chair to Mr. Roger Moore, who presided with his accustomed ease, and Secretary Meares Harriss kept a record of the proceedings. President Murchison announced that arrangements had been made to have the meetings of the club, hereafter at the Y. M. C. A. and a number of members expressed their appreciation of the kindness of the management of the association in providing for the club such an ideal place for its meetings. A rising vote of thanks was extended to those who provided the splendid luncheon and after the meeting, upon the invitation of General Secretary Huntington, many of the Rotarians made a tour of inspection over the building.

When Mr. Thos. R. Ames, chairman of the committee or arrangements for the "Made in Wilmington" parade, reported that 56 manufacturers had promised to have floats in the parade next week, he was greeted with much applause. He has worked hard on the proposition and has met with gratifying success. The Wilmington police and the Wilmington Light Infantry will lead the procession which will march over the principal streets of Wilmington next Wednesday. All members of the Rotary Club will ride in a body in the parade.

Dr. George K. Patterson, recently appointed chairman of the committee on the highway from Wilmington to Fayetteville, reported that he was awaiting a visit from a representative of the State Highway Commission before proceeding further. Chairman W. A. McGirt, of the Board of Commissioners, suggested that it would be a splendid idea for a hundred or more men to take an automobile trip as far as Burgaw or Warsaw and there meet a delegation from Clinton and other places and have a good roads meeting. The suggestion met with favor and will probably be carried out later.

After considerable discussion, it was decided to appoint a committee to go before City Council to ask that body to make an appropriation for the Merchants' Exhibit room and Ladies' Rest Room, which is maintained under the direction of the Housewives' League.

Mr. C. W. Polvogt reported progress on the movement to secure an ordinance prohibting the parking of automobiles on certain business streets and Mr. S. M. Boatwright reported that the Tidewater Power Company was making active preparations toward the erection of a number of improved lights on Princess and Front street. Permission was secured from City Council several weeks ago to install the new lights.

Mr. C. C. Chadbourn praised in eloquent terms the splendid work that Mr. Ames has done in getting up the "Made in Wilmignton" parade and called upon all the members of the club to assist him in this work.

MAKES INSPIRING ADDRESS

Mr. J. H. Tregoe, of New York, Speaks to Business Men of City at Chamber of Commerce.

An inspiring address in which he made an earnest plea that business men shall conduct themselves at all times and in all dealings as men should was made at the Chamber of Commerce last night by Mr. J. H. Tregoe, of New York, secretary and treasurer of the National Association of Credit Men. Mr. Tregoe held up high ideals for the hundred or more business men who heard him and he was greeted with warm applause. Co-operation was the key-note of his address and he deplored the methods used in some places where business men in a selfish effort to get all for themselves, forget to remember the interests of their competitors.

Mr. Tregoe, who had been the guest of the Wilmington Credit Association at a supper in his honor at the Orton before the public meeting, was introduced by Mr. M. W. Jacobi.

Mr. Tregoe, who has visited Wilmington on a number of occasions, stated that first of all he wished to congratulate the city on its substantial progress and spoke in high praise of the handsome Murchison National Bank building, commending the bank for having given expression to its public spirit by the erection of such an edifice. He recalled the severe strain that the country had been through during the past year as a result of the European war and declared that he believed the experience to have been worth while.

He commended strongly the Federal Bank system and declared that business men have not yet begun to realize its beneficence. He attributed to the system the fact that the country did not have a panic the past year. He made an earnest plea for commercial education and expressed his pleasure at the evidence he had found of a greater interest in this important matter.

He condemned the exemption laws of North Carolina and urged that steps be taken by which they can be removed from the statute books.

At the close of the address there was a round table discussion which proved to be very profitable. Mr. Tregoe will leave this afternoon for Atlanta, Ga.

INLAND WATERWAYS IN COAST DEFENSE

Urged by Congressman Moore at Convention in Savannah.

AS PART OF PROGRAM

Delivers Annual Address at Opening Session of Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association—Daniels Expected to Speak.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 9.—The need of river and harbor improvement as part of the plan for increased national defense was urged here today by President J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, in his annual address before some 600 delegates attending the opening session of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association convention.

"The phase of the Inland Waterways question now uppermost in our thoughts," said Mr. Moore, "is that of preparedness—preparedness of coast defenses—and yet there are those who would economize in river and harbor construction at this particular time, where the enemy would be most likely to strike. For where could there be more plunder to be had than along the Atlantic seaboard?

"We are not yet invulnerable, nor yet immune. If the navy is increased the channels along the coast, which are as serviceable to the navy as they are to commerce, must be kept in order. Certainly this is not the time for foolish economy."

Tonight the delegates attended a formal reception at the convention hall. Two sessions will be held tomorrow, including an inspection of naval vessels in the harbor.

Secretary Daniels is expected to arrive tomorrow and will address the delegates. Secretary Redfield is in attendance at the convention and will make an address. The convention will adjourn Friday.

FOREIGNERS SEE MIKADO CROWNED

and other dignitaries accompanied by their wives, all in full dress or uniform. The foreign women wore the ceremonial robes of the European court with train.

The United States was represented by Ambassador George W. Guthrie and Mrs. Guthrie. On account of lack of sufficient space it was necessary to abandon the plan of inviting the suites of the American and other diplomatic representatives. They will attend the second coronation ceremony, in Shishiiden hall this afternoon.

The emperor in commemoration of the coronation, bestowed decorations today on the ambassadors and ministers to Japan, with the exception of the American and Swiss representatives, who are prevented by the laws of their countries from accepting such decorations. In view of this fact the emperor presented to Mrs. Guthrie a golden lacquer box.

Gifts for the emperor are being received in great numbers. Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, sent a huge and rare vase of pink jade from the Ural mountains. President Poincare of France, sent Sevres vases.

The United States cruiser Saratoga, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, arrived at Kobe today and gave the salute. After official visit had been exchanged, Rear Admiral Albert J. Winterhalter; Commander Jay H. Sypher, his chief of staff; Commander Stanford E. Moses, of the monitor Monterey, and Captain Frederick J. Horne, naval attache of the American embassy, came to Kioto and called on the American ambassador, George W. Guthrie.

Most of the diplomats and special envoys here to attend the coronation ceremonies are quartered at the Kioto hotel which has been re-furnished from cellar to roof. Every article used was manufactured under the direction of the imperial household constituting one of the items in the $5,000,000 budget provide dto pay the expenses of the coronation.

1908. She had a gross tonnage of 8,210, was 482 feet in length and 58 feet beam.

For several months before Italy's entrance in the war the Ancona was engaged in carrying home Italian reservists from this country and supplies for the italian government. On one of her trips from New York to Naples late in August last year, the Ancona was stopped by the British at Gibraltar and 24 Germans and one Austrian were taken off the ship. Late last summer the Ancona left here for Italy with 75,000 bushels of wheat, 2,000 tons of hay and 200 horses for the Italian government. On the same voyage she caried 300 Italians in the steerage who went back because it was said at the time they could not get work on the New York subway.

THIEVES AT CASTLE HAYNES

Attempt to Get Into Post Office—Other Attempts.

Reports were made yesterday to the Wilmington police and Sheriff Cowan from Mr. E. R. Jones, postmaster at Castle Haynes, that thieves had tried to enter the post office at that place some time during Monday night.

The postoffice there is located in the waiting room of the depot. The window to the station office, which is at the edge of the platform was opened, but the iron bars prevented anyone from entering. The window to the waiting room where the post office is kept, was not fastened, but is several feet above the ground. Whoever made the attempt and carried sacks and an oil barrel from the platform and built a place on which to stand to raise the window, but it was evident that the would-be thief was frightened away, as the window was unopened, although he had evidently made preparations for that purpose.

Mr. John Winders, who sleeps in his store at Castle Haynes stated that he found tracks yesterday morning that convinced him that thieves had started to enter his store, but had changed their minds, probably upon seeing him there asleep.
